

ALL IN THE MIX

1 THE TRAY'S THE THING

The Yvonne tray by Interlude is a match made in heaven, featuring handsome stitched charcoal leather and sleek brass handles. $450, at Micos, 257 County Rd. 39A, Southampton, 631-287-5015, micos.com.

2 HEART OF GLASS

Opposites attract with the concrete and glass Combs vase, a decorative accent piece even without a single flower in it. $39, at BoConcept, 144 W. 58th St., NYC, 646-336-8188, boconcept.com.

3 TWICE AS NICE

Holly Hunt's Absinthe side table is both sculptural and practical, juxtaposing a patinated metal base with a smoky quartz crystal top. Available to the trade at Holly Hunt, 150 E. 58th St., NYC, 212-891-2500, hollyhunt.com.

4 TOTALLY ON FIRE

Crafted from torched solid ash that has been blackened and sealed with oil and wax, these industrial-looking, yet sophisticated turned-wood candlesticks feature copper sleeves and brass and steel detailing. $65 to $95 each, by appointment at Michael Robbins, 11 Canal St., Palisades, NY, 315-761-8010, michrobb.com.

5 GLASS ACT

Propped up by glass-panel legs, the SK dining table by John Ford for DesignLush finishes off its streamlined profile with a choice of five different hardwood tops. $11,250, by appointment at DesignLush, 200 Lexington Ave., Ste. 413, NYC, 212-532-5650, designlush.com.

6 DIVIDE AND CONQUER

Available in three sizes, Alice Tachen's pentagonal cast-concrete and brass Headlands box makes organizing your treasures a stylish endeavor. $232 (as shown), at Love Adorned, 156 Main St., Amherst, 631-267-7720, alacetachen.com.
